

The Bearded Collie Club of Scotland

Judges List Criteria (reviewed 2022)

This list is owned and maintained by the Judges Sub-committee of the Bearded Collie Club of Scotland who reserve the right to decline applications to be added to any of the judging lists, or to remove any judge from the list considered to be in breach of this criteria and of the Kennel Club Code of Best Practice for Judges.

1. POLICY STATEMENT ON JUDGES – A List

- 1.1 No one on the A list of the Bearded Collie club of Scotland should award Challenge Certificates in the breed any more frequently than once every 18 months (Breed Specialists) and once every two years (Non-Specialists). Any person who infringes this policy will automatically be dropped from the relevant list and notified accordingly.
- 1.2 A precondition of accepting a Bearded Collie Club of Scotland Championship Show appointment is that nominees do not judge the breed at any level in Scotland and anywhere else in the UK at Championship Show Level for 24 months prior to the appointment.
- 1.3 No one can be accepted to judge a Bearded Collie Club of Scotland Championship Show until they have previously awarded CCs and are on the Club's A1 list.
- 1.4 Anyone having judged a Bearded Collie Club of Scotland Championship Show will not be eligible to accept a Club Championship appointment for a period of 7 years.

2. POLICY STATEMENT ON JUDGES – B List

- 2.1 A precondition of accepting a Club Open Show appointment is that nominees do not judge Bearded Collies at Breed Club shows in Scotland for 18 months and General Open shows in Scotland for 12 months prior to the appointment.
- 2.2 Anyone on the B list who judges Bearded Collie classes any more frequently than once every 12 months in Scotland will automatically be removed from the judging list and notified accordingly.

3. POLICY STATEMENT ON JUDGES – C List

- 3.1 Anyone on the C list who judges Bearded Collie classes any more frequently than once every 6 months in Scotland will automatically be removed from the judging list and notified accordingly. Judges should be mindful at all times of having a good geographical spread if appointments are within 12 months, i.e. in excess of 100 miles.
